

HKI Arb Fellowship Assessment Course February 2012

The Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators is offering an intensive advanced level course over three evenings and two days. The course is designed for practitioners aspiring to the grade of Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators. Those who successfully complete the course and Award-writing examination may then apply for Fellowship of HKI Arb.

Participants must have some practical experience of arbitration, whether as counsel, expert, or as arbitrator, and be familiar with Hong Kong's Arbitration Ordinance. Participants will receive and be expected to read in advance, a scenario and associated documents which will form the basis of the practical exercises. This is an interactive event, with participants being evaluated on the basis of participation in the discussions and workshops. Participants will also receive a pre-course assignment to be completed (1,000 words) and handed in at or before the Orientation on Feb 1.

The course will be conducted by Louise Barrington, JD, LL.M, FCI Arb, Chartered Arbitrator (2001). She previously taught Arbitration and other subjects at Chinese University and City University of Hong Kong, and directed ICC Asia. Louise acts as counsel in international arbitrations in Europe and Asia, and has sat as arbitrator on a variety of cases under ICC and UNCITRAL Rules. She is founder and director of the Vis East Moot in Hong Kong.

Note: As an additional benefit, members of HKI Arb are also eligible to qualify for inclusion on the HKI Arb Panel of Mediators if they are already accredited mediators from one of the accrediting professional bodies in HK*, subject to confirmation by the HKI Arb Special Committee on Mediation.
