Work Experience

Angela has a varied background in education and work experience. She has worked with multinationals such as the Jardines Group and Edward Keller in consumer marketing, as well as in tourism with the respective statutory body in Hong Kong and Toronto. For the last 15 years she worked on the family business of exporting from China into developing countries. The most recent achievement is in mediation as a mediator to help resolving disputes out of the court system, saving astronomical legal fees and strenuous effort and time.

Professional Qualifications

She holds qualifications in marketing (Dip. CIM), and company administration with professional institutes (ACIS, ACS) as well as a bachelor's degree in linguistics (University of Toronto), a master's degree in education management (University of Bristol). Angela is also a panel member of the Hong Kong Mediation Centre, and an associate member of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (AHKIArb).

Experience in Mediation

A family dispute between father-in-law and daughter-in-law upon the death of the son (husband) over the estate management. The mediation was successful in the first session of 5 hours.
